

Accessing Ascension Parish Library's downloadable audiobook and eBook collection from any of the three Library locations.

Netlibrary (www.netlibrary.org) provides access to the library's downloadable audiobook and eBook collection. When you enter the site from any of the three Ascension Parish Library locations you will see the name of the library in the box on the right side of the screen. Once you have accessed the site, you are able to search downloadable audiobooks including the latest best sellers, book club favorites, award winning authors and more, as well as view the full text eBook collection.

Accessing Ascension Parish Library's downloadable audiobook and eBook collection from home.

If you have never registered with Netlibrary, you will need to come in the Library to setup your Netlibrary account. You are welcome to use any of our Internet-enabled PCs to do so. Once at the computer, use the browser and go to the Netlibrary website (www.netlibrary.org). Please remember, you must have a valid library card to use the Netlibrary collection. At the top right hand corner, click on the "Login" link.

Then, click on "Create a Free Account Here" link.
